SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.
In accordance with our last prospec
the specially reduced rates for 1872, viz
Weekly, per year.....
Semi-Weekly, per year.....
will be maintained for all new subscrib
and all old subscribers renewing prio the 15th day of January, 1873, when above Club rates will take effect.
THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TIM
Will contain Selected Editorials from Daily Times; General News, Domestic Foreign; The Proceedings of Congress
the State Legislatures; Full and Interes Correspondence; Book Reviews; The Cho
est Literary Selections; while its m prominent feature will be a COMPLE
AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, w
original articles from practical farmers;
reports of the American Institute Farm Club; complete weekly market reports
nancial, domestic produce, live stock,
goods and general.
AS A FAMILY PAPER,
The TIMES will have no superior; it will free from all appeals to vulgar and impu tastes, and may be safely admitted to ev domestic circle.
AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,
The TIMES will be devoted, as in the p to an intelligent and firm support of Republican Party. Its course in refere to the Tammany Ring, at a time when the other daily papers in New York structed and discouraged its efforts, att its sincerity in the cause of Reform.
TIMES stood alone in demanding Ref from 1869 to the close of 1871, and th is no sincere and honest proposal for form, in any branch of the Governme which will not be heartily supported by TIMES. But it will not conspire in and ing ambitious politicians or demagogue reach power under false pretenses. It w not encourage defection from the Repu
can Party, which is still the party of p
gress, security and national prosperity.
It will sustain, with all the force and fluence at its command, the principles a policy which have rendered that party justly famous in our history. It will ad cate those measures by which the hono
the peace, and the prosperity of the nati can be best secured and promoted, and w constantly study the wants of the peop rather than the wishes of the politicians.
THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKL TIMES
Is published every Tuesday and Friday and contains all the agricultural and liter ry matter of the Weekly edition, and a f and careful compilation of editorial a news features of the Daily.
Terms of the Semi-Weekly TIMES: O
copy, one year. $3; two copies, one year, ten copies, one year, $25—and one ex
copy free.
Subscripttons to either of our editio received for a less length of time than o

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Monday, August 11th, 1873.

The Returns.

The returns come in so slowly that we can form no definite idea of the result, though we are inclined to believe that the amendments are adopted. So much apathy existed all over the State in regard to the matter, that it is impossible to form any opinion from former votes. The question was so thoroughly agitated and impressed upon the people's minds that it was not a party question, that both sides polled a very light vote. Many Republicans, especially in the Western portion of the State, favored the amendments, and seeing the voting all going the same way, did not take the trouble to vote. As we stated some time age, the Democratic press claimed that the question was non-political, and that a vote for the amendments would not be a violation of party duties. Now that the chances are in favor of the adoption of the amendments, these same papers are beginning to talk of a Democratic triumph! We expected it, and so tried to prepare the public mind for it. In this section we opposed the amendments, but the majority against them in this county is numbered by hundreds instead of thousands, because of the little interest taken in the question. We fear it is so elsewhere.

It will be necessary for us to wait with patience for the official returns, and as our experience proves this to be a long, tedious process, and the time taken for some of them to come over the mountains, we cannot announce the vote for some time.

In Wake county, the Republicans have elected their candidate for the Legislature, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Badger, in a most spirited canvass. Mr. Gilbert, the member elect, is a typo, and has been working at the case in Raleigh for some time past. The News, in speaking of him, says:

"Mr. Gilbert has resided in this city "since 1871, working at the case as a "journeyman printer, was close and "steady, attended to his own affairs, let "others alone, and this is why he is so "little known. He is very popular with "his fellow-craftsmen, who know him "well, which is much to be said for him, "and we must confess that though a "Radical he is by no means a bad man. "As long as we are compelled to suffer "the affliction of a Radical representa- "tive, we would prefer Gilbert to the "whole 'kit and biling.'"

The Columbus convention brought forth an unchristian party, and the press of the country is now busy with efforts for a proper nomenclature. The New York Herald calls it the "Cocktail" Convention; the Cincinnati Enquirer dubs it the "Homeless" party, and the "Mound Builders." Others have christened it the "Nameless," "No Name," "Pughseyite," "Hybrids" and "Mongrel" party, but none of the names seem to stick. The Chicago Times compares the lucubrations of its framers to the incantation of the witches of "Macbeth."—"How now, ye secret, black and midnight hags! What is it ye do? "A deed without a name." The Cincinnati Gazette dubs it "The Parasees." We have immortalized it with the name of "Sad-you-sees," and Caleb Cushing is understood to be preparing a brief against it, as he did in the case of another yellow dog nuisance.—Republican.

SEA-SIDE RIPPLES.

Benjamin Wood, of New York, has a fine equippage at Saratoga.

Photographs are being taken extensively at the White Sulphur Springs.

Anna Dickinson is sojourning at Swampscott, where Wendell Phillips is also.

The old "Virginia Reel" is indulged in regularly every night by the guests of Rawley Springs.

Mr. Alfred Burbank, of Chicago, gives dramatic and humorous readings at Newport with success.

The rumors that only three gentlemen having dress-coats can be raised for a German at Long Branch are tales to be discredited.

Newport is quite given up to foreign visitors, among whom are Count Corti, the Marquis de Noailles, and Admiral Polo de Barnabe.

"The lady with fifteen trunks" has really arrived at Saratoga. She was pronounced by one of the most amiable cartmen of the locality a "dray deceiver."

The chronicler of "doings" at the White Sulphur Springs has broken out again. This time, in speaking of the "snow white locks of Mrs. C., of Philadelphia," he says: "In her white crape robes, with unsullied mass towering majestically above her beautiful brow, she can be likened only to the Jungfraue in its unapproachable splendor."

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— Another conflagration in Portland, Me., shows that the dread fire fiend still stalks abroad.

— Mrs. Charles S. Stratton, (Tom Thumb's wife,) fell down a flight of stairs at her home in Middleborough, Mass., on Thursday, and badly injured her spine and head.

— There are no more particulars worthy of note from the burned steamer Wawassett. She was burned at noon, and not at midnight, as one would naturally infer from the Post dispatches. The loss of life was undoubtedly at least fifty.

— A private dispatch from Hon. J. Lothrop Motley, received in Boston by cable on Thursday, characterizes the published report in regard to his illness, which was telegraphed from London on Wednesday, as "absurdly exaggerated." The physician attending him says that there was no paralysis, and Mr. Motley was out driving on the very day the dispatch was published.

— In view of the present disorganized condition of affairs in Spain, the vessels comprising the European squadron, under command of Rear Admiral A. Ludlow Case, have been ordered to rendezvous in Spanish ports. The Wabash, flagship of the squadron, is now en route to Carthagena, and the Congress and Wachusett will follow. The Shenandoah is already at Cadiz. The Alaska, now in commission at Brooklyn, will sail in about ten days to join the European squadron.

— The condition of Hon. John P. Hale, of New Hampshire, has lately much improved, and is now more hopeful than at any other time since the fall by which he fractured his hip. The parts of the bone seem to be slowly uniting, and it is thought probable that he will, after all, fully rally from the prostration in which the accident left him. Of course he will remain practically crippled, but considering the nature of the accident, and his age and recent state of health, even this rallying is quite remarkable, and betokens considerable vitality yet remaining.

— The Internal Revenue Bureau has information that a certain class of operators under the old law relative to informers' fees in internal revenue cases are of the opinion that the new law does not repeal the shares of informers as has been supposed. It appears that the repealing law repeals a certain section of the old law, which it was supposed related to the shares of informers. A close examination of the law, however, shows that that section makes no mention of informers' shares. It is, therefore, maintained that the repeal is limited to that section, and that informers may still claim their societies. This is to be regretted. We had hoped this system of paying spies was at an end.

GRAPHICALITIES.

Why twit a man with being "on his last legs," when they are the only ones he's got?

The most demoralized man in the world—The man who moralizes, and does nothing else.

Mr. W. B. Astor is about to sail on the Atlantic. N. B. Atlantic is the name of his new yacht.

If you can't find a policeman on his beat, you will be sure to find him in some corner liquor shop.

What a blessed thing it would be in this world if all the "beats" in it should suddenly become dead beats!

Melancholy—The health authorities of Montgomery, Ala., refuse to allow any water-melons to be brought into the city.

The Council of the Order of Red Men has been in session in Paterson. We don't hear of anything red out of the Council.

There is a "but" in the minds of some of the policemen when considering the propriety of making a raid upon goats up-town.

A vein of mica has been discovered in Cherokee County, Ga., and they talk of getting the Mikado of Japan to come and develop it.

The Jersey hens have got into such a habit of mislaying their eggs that chickens are getting scarce there, and omelettes almost impossible.

The fifth milliard of the indemnity, paid by France to Prussia, will be on hand by the 1st of September. Thus the vast amount of one thousand millions of dollars of this tax, by the most favorable computation, will have been paid, since the Franco-Prussian war, "without having cost the slightest perturbation on any European exchange, and without having recourse to the Bank of France." The French people "of the republic" have paid the money out of their own pockets!

The Raleigh News mourneth muchly over the defeat of the democratic candidates in the election last week, and would have crawled over Rocky branch to the lunatic asylum, snake like, to have secured their election. Poor fellows, those candidates are Stone dead, and Snowed under, but we advise the News men to go to that asylum anyhow, as it seems to be their last chance.

SAPOLIO is a substitute for soap for all household purposes, except washing clothes

SAPOLIO for cleaning your house will save the labor of one cleaner. Give it a trial.

SAPOLIO for windows is better than whiting or water. No removing curtains and carpets.

SAPOLIO cleans paint and wood, in fact the entire house, better than soap. No slopping. Saves labor. You can't afford to be without it.

SAPOLIO for scouring knives is better and cleaner than Bath Brick. Will not scratch.

SAPOLIO is better than soap and sand for polishing Tinware. Brightens without scratching.

SAPOLIO polishes brass and copper utensils better than acid or oil and rotten stone.

SAPOLIO for washing dishes and glassware is invaluable. Cheaper that soap.

SAPOLIO removes stains from marble mantels, tables and statuary, from hard-finished walls, and from china and porcelain:

SAPOLIO removes stains and grease from carpets and other woven fabrics.

There is no one article known that will do so many kinds of work, and do it as well as Sapolio. Try it.

HAND SAPOLIO a new and wonderfully effective Toilet Soap, having no equal in this country or abroad.

HAND SAPOLIO as an article of the bath, "reaches the foundation" of dirt, opens the pores and gives a healthy action and brilliant tint to the skin.

HAND SAPOLIO cleanses and beautifies the skin, instantly removing any stain or blemish from both hands and face.

HAND SAPOLIO is without a rival in the world for curing or preventing roughness and chapping of either hands or faces.

HAND SAPOLIO removes tar, pitch, iron or ink stains and grease; for workers in machine shops, mines, &c., is invaluable. For making the skin white and soft, and giving to it a "bloom of beauty," it is unsurpassed by any cosmetic known.

HAND SAPOLIO costs 10 to 15 cents per cake, and everybody should have it. You will like it.

Don't Fail to try these Goods.

Buy it of your merchant if he has it or will procure it for you. If not, then write for our Pamphlet, "All about Sapolio," and it will be mailed free.

ROBBERY.—Some thieves broke into Hall's Shoe Store on Princess street last night, and stole several pairs of shoes. They effected an entrance through the back door. No clue to the robbers as yet.

S. HANSTEIN & Co., New York House, 15 Market street, are offering the entire stock of drygoods, clothing, hats and shoes, at New York cost.

Mayor's Court.

Before Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

John Newman and Robt. Mying, for disorderly conduct and fighting, etc., fined the street Saturday night, was fined and cost.

Israel Henny, for a like charge, was fined $20 and cost, but was reduced to dollars and cost.

Charles Wilson, charged with insulting a police officer in the discharge of duty, was fined $50 and cost. An appeal was asked for and granted.

WE have been requested to call the attention of the County Commissioners to the condition of the old Brunswick road to Masonboro Sound. A couple of bridges at the Downey Branch are in a very dangerous condition. The road immediately in front of the Downey house is filled up with rubbish from a ditch which has been lately cleaned out, and is so very narrow that there is danger of the ditches caving in on the sides. If this is a county road it should be attended to and if it is not a county road it is a public one, and is much better than the county highway, and we think it would be advisable to get it in good order and let the other road alone.

THE only chance of getting a suit of clothing, shoes, shirts, &c., at New York cost, is to go to
S. HANSTEIN & Co's.,
New York House,
15 Market street.

THE CHURCHES yesterday were rather poorly attended, though several of them were closed. Morning prayers at St. James' were read by Mr. Patterson at 9 a. m., as Dr. Watson was at the Church at Wrightsville. Rev. Mr. Ambler having returned, preached morning and evening at St. Paul's. Rev. Mr. Marable was detained by sickness, and there was no service in the Presbyterian Church. Rev. Holder Hiden preached in the Baptist Church, and Dr. Bernheim in the Lutheran. Mr. Patterson preached at St. John's.

The weather was intensely hot, and although "sprinkly" at night, the air was so sultry that but very few people attended the services.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Mild.

— Gold is 115⅞.

— City very quiet.

— Fruits still plentiful.

— Hotels are getting empty.

— Princess street pavement grows.

— Days are getting much shorter.

— Moonlight nights are on the wane.

— Advertise once, and see how nice it is.

— What has become of our ship canal?

— Some merchants will go North this week.

— And the strange dog came to gladden us last night!

— Sprinkling drops cooled the atmosphere delightfully.

— The dwellers at the Sounds this year remind one of the ante bellum days.

— The Clerk of the Court got the Supreme Court decisions for this county this morning.

— Free Love Lodge, G. U. O. of O. F., paraded this afternoon, and made a fine appearance.

— The sojourners at Greenville expect to have a dance at the house on the banks next Wednesday night if old Prob permits.

Saturday Night Sketches.

They had all gone to the Sound this evening—at least all of the POST editorial staff except one—and we wandered along so lonely we had great difficulty in finding new items for our sketch. The noise and laughter was louder and the crowds on the walks greater than usual we fancied, though we missed the handsome faces of the POST quill drivers among the loafers on the corners. Why shouldn't the crowd be merry when there are at least five thousand dollars distributed every Saturday night among the labor of the city? And half of this goes directly to the dealers in food. Oh the short sighted people who frown on the industries of this land. Go among the laborers and skilled workmen on the streets Saturday night and learn the great public benefit our manufactories are to all merchants and farmers. Without them, Wilmington would stagnate and die. Who has not felt the comfort there is in going to market with his money in his pocket, the consideration for his services, valuable to some one, and earned by good conduct and usefulness during the week? If there are any who have not experienced this delightful sensation, let them pull off their coats to-day and earn some money by the sweat of their face that they may appreciate the cause of the careless laughter and fun of the Saturday night crowds! We know how it is ourself.

The "toilers of the sea" have contributed largely to the local columns of the city press the past week. Indeed if it had not been for them, we fear there would have been so great a dearth of items since the regatta, that some of the locals would have committed hari kari in sheer despair. And so one comes along now, with the usual reckless devil-may-care style, peculiar to "old salts" whether we find them in story books or in real life, carrying more than his share of whiskey, foundering among the carts and mules, with no pilot aboard, in a strange sea, three sheets in the wind. Poor fellow. Now he collides with an ox; backs and fills, steering a little "No'th East by No'th" to the middle of the street. Here he sights a strange craft, and steers for her green light, but only finds a drug store much to his disgust, which he is at no pains to conceal. In fact, his demonstrations can be heard above the good natured din, and a couple of knights of the star, taken him in tow and anchor him in the guard house, where he sinks upon his bench and calmly sleeps away his troubles with the fumes which betray his misdoings. Where is his home? Is there a mother or a wife on the broad face of the earth who nightly bends the knee in prayer for his welfare? Where is the little cherub aloft, the old song tells us "watches the fate of poor Jack?" Alas, no one to keep him from temptation, a long voyage, pent up within a few planks which kept him from the ocean; who can find it in their heart to blame the bronzed wanderer for his reckless disregard for self. Bring on your Seamen's Homes and Christian Associations, and care for "poor Jack."

We wish the policemen were instructed to teach the people to take the right hand side of the walk when in a crowd. They have it to perfection in New York, but here it is confusion worse confounded. One half the confusion and jam on Market street could be avoided by this simple system, and most of the balance, by requiring people to keep moving except while making purchases. It is hardly conducive to happiness to have five or six old friends meet, stop and spend half an hour over the reminiscences of other days while persons having business to transact, must work by the best they can. And again, the youthful game of tag can be played on some retired green, with greater comfort to the people than it can be on the walk among this vast throng. But it will all come right sometime we presume and we intend to seize our genial Mayor one of these days or rather nights and walk him through this crowd and show him how it is. Perhaps he will fix it. Who knows?

Now comes the moon over the new buildings, and the songs become louder. We think of our friends at the Sound, and can almost hear the ripple of the waves around the prow of the yacht we know they are in, and their exclamations as they hastily brush the sand flies from their massive brows. We have a small breeze ourself, however, and though they will lave in salt waters, we will calmly sit by the gaslight, and fan, and smoke, and be comfortable. Who wouldn't stay home under such circumstances.

While we are writing the Saturday night has gone. Our friends at the Sound are calmly waiting the approach of sleep; the Sabbath has come and our Commercial has reached another birthday. The dignity of years is gradually adding themselves to his youthful brow and his experience in the multitudinous duties devolving upon him render him worthy of his increased age. And may he have many—very many—happy returns.

NEW YORK, August 11.

Collector Arthur has notified deputy collectors that the old law requires importers to appear at the custom house, personally, and make oath as to ownership of goods. The necessity of this reminder grows from the practice of importers delegating the duty to clerks and brokers, whereby great abuses have occured.

Last night, in Williamsburg, Wm. Anderson, instigated by jealousy and whiskey, stabbed Anne Cunningham four or five times in the back with a common jack knife, and then stabbed himself three times in the left side.—Neither are fatally injured.

Last night, in Brooklyn, Michael Savage fell from the stoop of his house, and owing to his great age his recovery from his injuries is doubtful. His wife was so shocked by the occurrence that she died in a few hours after.

Governer Austin and Mayor Brackett of Minneapolis, had two interviews at Long Branch with the President regarding the Manitoba affair, and explained the whole matter, dwelling especially on the cruelty with which prisoners are treated by the Manitobe authorities. They also sought to press upon the President the necessity for speedy action, as they feared the people in Minnesota, unless something was done at once, would take the settlement of the case into their own hands.

The President, according to the dispatch, gave the Governor and Mayor to understand that unless the matter was disposed of in a reasonable time, a demand in unmistakable terms would be made on the British government, and would be followed by further action.—The President then asked the Governor and Mayor to reduce their statements to writing, which they did, and the paper was then forwarded to Secretary Fish, who will be visited to-day by its authors.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—N Y Evening Post.

OLD AND NEW.

THE PEOPLE'S MAGAZINE.

Edited by Edward E. Hale.

The enlarged resources placed in the hands of the OLD AND NEW, by the public and by the proprietors, enable them to announce a volume of wider interest than they have ever published.

Mrs Greenough's Story, Pythonia, and Mr Hale's Story, Ups and Downs, will be continued and completed in this volume.

A series of short stories by Miss Meredith! Mrs Stowe, Mrs Whitney' Miss Hale, Mr Perkins, Mr Loring, and others, has been engaged.

Mr Martineau's series will be continued in papers on The Church and its Exclusive Claims, Scripture and the Limits of its Authority, God in Humanity, &c.

The series of articles on Political Science by gentlemen of recognized ability, will comprise papers on Railroads, Servants or Masters?—The Ballot in England—Land—The Law of Maritime Jurisdiction; The Indian Question; The Suffrage of Women; Equal Taxation; Tariffs and Protection What the New Administration must do Labor and Wages Question.

The subjects of critical interest in

NATURAL HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY

will be illustrated by different gentlemen eminent in their lines of research. We shall soon have the pleasure of printing papers, among others, by Prof. Lesley, Mr Dall, Dr Gray, and President Hill.

THE EXAMINER

is not confined to the review of the publications of a few houses, but attempts to give some account of the more important issues from the French, German and English press, as well as our own.

THE RECORD OF PROGRESS

describes the substantial advance which the world has made, in whatever direction or in whatever region, with special reference to improvements in domestic life which may be attempted in America.

The magazine will be under the editorial charge of EDWARD E. HALE, who will have wider assistance than heretofore in the management of its Journal department.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the

LATEST NEWS,

up to the time of going to press,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE,

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the POST is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

"SPECIMEN AND PRICE LIST FURNISED GRATIS."

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly, S. MCGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate. WM. E. SINN, BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873. Front Street Theatre.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception. Yours, truly,

JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.

Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheefully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all k nds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a goed job of work.

Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.

House, Sign and Frescoe Painters.

PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.

Very Respetfully, R. DICKEY, M. D.

Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
